dent had with any considerable number of members of congress on the trust question and was taken to indicate that as with the tariff and currency questions, the trust problem would be handled through the close co-operation of the president and members of congressional committees. It has not been determined whether all the anti-trust bills in the house will be handled by the judiciary committee or whether some will be taken in hand by the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. In the senate the legislation will be in charge of Senator Newlands, of Nevada, chairman of the interstate commerce committee.

"It was simply a general talk," said Chairman Clayton, after the conference, "and the interchange of ideas with no direct conclusions. We talked over various phases of the question and the bills now pending and are going ahead with our work with a better understanding of the president's ideas."

Other members of the committee said interlocking directorates, interstate trade commissions, definition of the Sherman law and anti-monopoly measures of various kinds were discussed in a general way, but not in detail. They said the conference would probably be followed by others.

ROOT GETS NOBEL 1912 PEACE PRIZE

There were two for disposal this year, each of them worth $40,000. The report of the committee, which was read by the secretary today, refers to Senator Elihu Root's work in the pacification of the Philippines and Cuba, and in the handling of the American-Japanese dispute. It praises his high political and international ideas, his prominence as a statesman and his constant efforts to promote the idea of international peace.

The Hague, Dec. 10.—Senator Elihu Root was today selected as a member of the court of arbitration, to which are to be submitted the claims of British, French and Spanish subjects in regard to property seized by the Portuguese government after the proclamation of a republic in that country. His associates will be Jonkheer Alexander Frederik de Savornin Lohman, Dutch minister of state, and Dr. C. Lardy, Swiss minister to France.

Announcement is also made that Ben Warfield, the jeweler, has offered to turn over his new quarters to the "tag day" workers Saturday and lunch will be served to those who take part in the campaign.

A portion of the funds received yesterday came from farmers on the Barr street market who donated more than $40. Additional donations of large denomination come from Mr. and Mrs. William M. Out of Town Help. Many responses are reaching headquarters from the letters mailed during the first few days of the campaign, and a communication received this morning by Dr. G. W. McCaskey contained a check from Dr. A. T. McDonnell, of Lima, O. In closing his letter Dr. McDonnell writes:

"As an appreciation of your thoughtfulness in giving me an opportunity to add my mite to the fund for a new Hope hospital, please find enclosed small check for same. With best wishes for a speedy and successful completion of the work I remain,

JUDGMENT BECOMES ABSOLUTE.

Russian Government Fails to Appeal the Beliss Verdict.

Kiev, Russia, Dec. 10.—The time limit expired today for an appeal against the verdict of acquittal in the recent sensational trial of Mendel Beiliss on the charge of murdering Andrew Yushinsky for purposes of "blood ritual." As the public prosecutor did not take advantage of the days allowed for appeal, judgment became absolute automatically.

WHISKY CAUSES FATALITIES.

Michigan Is Asked to Bar Liquor From Hunting Camps.

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 10.—W. R. Oates, state game warden, has been asked to urge the passage of a state law to prevent hunters from taking whisky into their hunting camps during the deer season. In a letter just received by the department a man of forty years' experience in the north woods writes that a majority of the hunting fatalities result from over indulgence in whisky. He declares that there was more whisky taken into the north woods this season than ever before and he believes a law should be passed prohibiting its use by deer hunters.

CITY WILL TAKE IT OVER.

San Francisco to Acquire Its Second Street Railway at Midnight.

San Francisco, Dec. 10.—At midnight tonight the city of San Francisco will acquire its second street railway when it takes over the Union street line from the Presidio and Ferries Railroad company. The voters sanctioned the purchase of this line in connection with a recent election at which a bond issue was endorsed for building a number of street railways to provide transportation to the Panama-Pacific exposition. The board of supervisors has ordered the first payment of $50,000 on the Union street line.

It is expected the Philippines commission will modify the bill.

LIQUOR'S FOES IN NEW ATTACK

ination it had been swelled by hundreds from the streets and when the ceremonies began, observers estimated that more than four thousand persons were packed on the capitol approaches and the broad driveways. Leaders climbed to the huge stone statues which stand the east entrance and led the huge outdoor audience in singing "America," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and other hymns in a mighty chorus that rose on the still, chill, December air.

Representative Hobson and Senator Sheppard were cheered as they climbed to the top of the huge stone stairway casement above the heads of the throng.

where they received the resolution for a national prohibition constitutional amendment, which later was introduced in both houses of congress. President Baker, of the Anti-Saloon League, submitted the resolutions and Senator Sheppard replied on behalf of himself and Mr. Hobson.

Senator Sheppard Speaks. "There is no higher duty that we can conceive," said the senator, "than to introduce in both houses of congress this resolution calling for national prohibition by constitutional amendment. We are against the liquor traffic because it is the worst enemy of our civilization, because we want a drunkenless republic and an united flag."

Speaking for the Anti-Saloon league forces, Mr. Cherrington declared that the army of men aided by the W. C. T. U. were "stockholders in the great institution of American society" pleading for nation-wide prohibition by constitutional amendment as "the only hope for the speedy solution of the growing problem in our great centers of population."

"When more than 47,000,000 of our population," he continued, "lives in territory from which the saloon has been banished by the sovereign will of the people and when a very large percentage of the population in the remaining license territory of the nation is earnestly and actively favorable to prohibition legislation, it is certainly not presumptuous to assume that the time has come when this question should be considered of national political importance."

Poisoned Blood Quickly Cleansed
In Any Form of Blood
Trouble the Cure is Rapid.

An astonishing record of serious blood poisoning is daily brought to our attention. And most if not all these startling calamities could be averted were the blood primed, toned and purified in advance by that wonderful remedy known everywhere as S. S. S. Few people realize how quickly the system becomes infected with the acids and ferments from undigested food, constipation and inactive kidneys. The symptoms are fever, thirst, excitability, dry skin followed by rash, and many indications wrongly diagnosed as Pottainie poisoning. This condition is almost universal in all climates and is quickly overcome by the action of S. S. S. Many people who act hastily from violent temper are simply suffering from the effects of poisoned blood, produced by faulty elimination. But by far the greatest peril is the daily danger from bruises, contusions, the scratch of a rusty nail, insect bites, poisoning and the house fly that deposits the germs of Typhoid, Malaria, Diphtheria and other malignant diseases.

The medicinal properties of S. S. S. are relatively just as essential to well balanced health as are the nutritive properties of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food. And if you will bear this fact in mind and get your blood under the dominating influence of S. S. S. you will not only drive out those impurities that cause Rheumatism, Catarrh, Eczema, Pimples, Boils and thin anemic blood, but you will feel anew the thrill of health that can come only from a purified blood stream.

Do not accept anything else in place of S. S. S.; pay no attention to the "Just as Good" claims of those who would sacrifice your health to make an extra profit. S. S. S. contains no minerals, no crude drugs, nothing but the most beneficial botanical materials. Be sure and get S. S. S. and avoid disappointment. MAYOR APPOINTS ADVISORY BOARD

Chief Executive-Elect of Montpelier Selects Eight Women and Eight Men to Counsel Him.

Montpelier, Ind., Dec. 10.—Mayor-elect T. C. Neal, of this city, has taken hostage that his forthcoming municipal administration shall not be a failure for want of advice. He has just completed the appointment of an advisory board consisting of eight women and eight men whose counsel he says he will seek on all matters that are purposed for the betterment of the city.

Mayor-elect Neal, in announcing his selections, states that he had tried to appoint people whose advice will be beneficial to the community generally, seeking appointees among the largest taxpayers, the most active church workers, the leading business interests and best political elements. He says that all things of general interest to the community will be brought before the advisory board, together with the common council and himself, and the entire official and extra-official body will determine the best course of action upon all matters that affect the welfare of the community. The following persons have been named for the mayor-elect's advisory board:

Ladies—Mrs. Samuel Tait, Mrs. Andrew Johnston, Mrs. Retha Gonder, Mrs. Edward Helm, Mrs. James O'Donnell, Mrs. C. T. Cloud, Mrs. Catherine McIntire, Mrs. Dr. F. M. Reynolds.

DENY THEY ARE GUILTY.

Decatur, Ind., Dec. 10.—Joe Gannon, Charles Williams and Edward Wisner, the three men held in the county jail on charges of grand larceny preferred against them by Sergeant Moran, of the Chicago & Erie detective force, were brought into court to plead to the charges against them. All entered pleas of not guilty and then filed their applications to defend as poor persons. The petition was submitted and sustained and L. C. DeVoss appointed to defend them. The hearing of the charges was set for December 22. The defendants are the men arrested following the discovery of ten coats concealed in the old Klick tile mill site, in the west part of the city. The men were arrested just as they had boarded an eastbound Clover Leaf freight train to leave the city.

BURY PIONEER THURSDAY.

Kendallville, Ind., Dec. 10.—The funeral of Lucas Bassett, a pioneer of Milford township, Lagrange county, will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church in South Milford tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. L. W. Kemper will officiate and interment will be made in South Milford cemetery. Death was the result of a stroke of apoplexy. The deceased was a native of Vermont and 73 years old. As a young man he came to this section of Indiana and was one of the early settlers of Milford township, where he had resided for more than half a century. The widow and three daughters and three sons survive him.

FINE STEER IS MISSING.

Bluffton, Ind., Dec. 10.—Joe Stahl, residing south of Liberty Center, is hunting for a valuable steer which disappeared from his farm Sunday night. The animal was in a high fenced pasture field and all the fences had wire on top of them so it is hardly likely that the steer escaped itself. Mr. Stahl is unwilling to accuse any one of theft until he is absolutely sure and he hunted all day yesterday for the animal. It was a pet and would be easily identified by peculiar markings. In case he decides that it is stolen a watch will be kept at all the hide dealers. The animal weighed about 1,000 pounds and was valued at $70.

GOES TO HIGHER COURT.

Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 10.—The much discussed case of Mrs. Bertha Clark, wife of Ervin Clark, of South Line street, convicted by a jury last month on a charge of pandering, is at rest for some months, as the result of legal action that was taken Tuesday afternoon in Whitley circuit court before Judge Wrigley, and which resulted in a bond of $1,500 being filed that frees her until final action is taken in the supreme court of Indiana. She had been sentenced to the women's prison for from two to fourteen years.

FOUR TRAINS CUT OFF.

Bluffton, Ind., Dec. 10.—Four trains on the Cincinnati, Bluffton and Chicago railroad (the "short line") have been annulled and will be taken off the road until spring. The trains are the two noon trains each way and the two late trains at night each way. The lighter passenger traffic in the winter time can be handled by four trains a day and following a system of economy which is being carried out by the road to reduce the expenses will be made to take care of the passenger traffic. The other trains will be run on the schedule which has been in effect for the past summer.

TOM LYONS GETS OFF EASY.

Bluffton, Ind., Dec. 10.—Tommy Lyons, arrested Saturday night by Officer Fritz on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, was arraigned before Mayor Frank Smith and was turned loose on his promise to remain at work on the Hurricane branch ditch until he has earned enough money to take him far away from the city. Lyons admitted that he was carrying a revolver, but denied that he had any intentions of making any attempt on the life of his wife, Mrs. Jane Lyons, of East Washington street.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

11 Corinthians 7:1-10.

1 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 But I speak not this to condemn you; for I have said before that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorifying of you; I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings; within were fears.

6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth these that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming only but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter I do not repent, though I did repent; for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but a season.

9 Now I rejoice not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly manner that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of, but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

Gathering Up the Fragments

Decidedly the most engaging bit of political phenomena now visible is the beginning of the effort to gather up the fragments of the republican party organization, rent asunder by dissension, desertion and defeat, and to attempt to amalgamate the whole once more into a formidable fighting organization. Locally the effort has taken shape in the formation of what is denominated the Lincoln Republican club, and under its banner it is hoped to woo back into organized line the Fort Wayne republicans who have become somewhat scattered in the developments of the past two years.

Nationally the effort is taking form in the proposition for a meeting of the national committee to pave the way for a common basis upon which the party can stand in the oncoming elections. The way is not a smooth one. Even in the national committee there exists a division of opinion as to the advisability of a national party convention to formulate a party position that shall correct old inequalities in party representation and conform more nearly to the advanced political sentiment of the country. The recent declaration of President Wilson for direct presidential primaries will make it necessary for the republicans to take some sort of stand upon this question. In doing so the party faces the fact that the "old guard" is defiantly opposed to the primary plan, while those republicans who subscribe to progressive ideas will be just as insistently in favor of it. There will be many other points of wide division of sentiment, and altogether the outlook must appear discouraging to those who have hoped that the first waving of the olive branch would be the signal for the lion and the lamb to lie down together once more.

The acquittal of Dr. Craig, at Shelbyville, of the charge of having killed Dr. Helene Knabe at Indianapolis is precisely what has been expected by those who have watched the case and formed judgment from the newspaper accounts of the affair. The state's case has appeared from the first to be of very flimsy character, and the fact that dismissal of the case was ordered by the court after the state had set forth in evidence the full force of its case, and without the introduction of an iota of direct evidence by the defense, describes more plainly than words can do the weakness of the state's position in the case. In the light of developments it is rather amazing that the action was allowed by the state to go to trial at all.

Delegates returning from the national rivers and harbors congress report that eastern shipping interests are far more confident of the construction of the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal than are residents along the route of the proposed waterway. They, perhaps, to a greater degree than anyone else, appreciate the tremendous importance of the Toledo-Chicago cut-off in the waterway route between east and west. Their active interest and assistance will prove a powerful element in supplementing the local effort to secure the construction of the canal.

Additional funds are again demanded by the city garbage crematory because of extensive repairs which have been necessary and by reason of the increased cost of coal. How long is it going to be before Fort Wayne becomes tired of feeding money into the amazingly capacious maw of this institution and take necessary steps to secure a modern disposal plant that will do the work cheaply and in sanitary fashion? The old junkpile on Clinton street outlived what usefulness it ever had a good many years ago.

It will be noted, also, that during these joyous pre-Christmas days congress is having nothing like a monopoly in the discussion of the currency question.

PRESS ON SECESSION OF W. A. PRENDERGAST.

Dissatisfaction Patent.

Philadelphia Bulletin: "Dissatisfaction on the part of Controller Prendergast, of New York, with the management of the progressive party there has long been patent."

Promptly Returns.

Syracuse Post-Standard: "Mr. Prendergast, elected controller as a republican, promptly became insurgent and then progressive. Re-elected as a progressive, he promptly returns to the republican party."

Ingenuous Reasoning.

Syracuse Herald: "The declaration from Mr. Prendergast, despite the ingenuous reasoning that accompanies it, is not likely to produce much impression in the advanced wing of the progressive party."

Old Party Lines.

Boston Herald: "Mr. Prendergast abandoned the cause, deciding to fight the battle for progressive principles henceforth within the old party lines. This is only one more straw showing the way the wind blows."

Paramount Importance.

Philadelphia Ledger: "Nothing is of such paramount importance to the nation now as the heading of the schism and the revival of the republican party as a formidable factor in national and state politics."

Careful Reflection.

Philadelphia Press: "No republican progressive and no progressive republican would waste the time that he would give to careful reflection upon the suggestions of the hard headed controller of New York city."

Party of Progress.

Philadelphia Inquirer: "The republican party, say what you will, has been the party of progress. It is capable of making much more progress, and it will do so if given the opportunity. But it will not have the opportunity without progressive support."

Party Opposition.

Waterbury Times: "Mr. Prendergast sees that unless the republican party is united there can be no strong and effective party in opposition to keep the present democratic rule straight and mindful of its responsibilities."

A PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY.

(St. Louis Republic.)

President Wilson makes the novel and interesting suggestion that candidates for the presidency be nominated in primaries and that the convention in national politics be made exactly what it is in Missouri state politics—a gathering of nominees to formulate a platform.

Whatever may be the fate of the suggestion, one thing is beyond discussion. That is that the old type of national delegate—the man who won his election by pulling wires and then went to the national convention with no object except to advance his own political schemes by his voice and vote—is a thing of the past. He is as out of place in politics, as progressive citizens now understand it, as a dodo would have been in the poultry show at the Coliseum last week.

The American people demand today that the nomination of a presidential candidate be a true and exact reflection of the popular will. This demand is not to be resisted, and the public will smash any organization or any machine that stands in its way.

Whether the direct presidential primary is to come or not, it would take a prophet to divine. We have today the instructed delegate, who goes to the convention simply to register the will of the voters of his district. Whatever may be the final plan, the victory for popular choice as against boss choice is already fought—and won. Why, even the republicans are about to relent.

COLD STORAGE ABUSES.

(Washington Star.)

The cold storage system is supposed to take up the surplus during the heavy laying period and supply the markets during the period of deficiency. If there is no surplus during the laying period and eggs are stored then the natural result is to increase the price at both times. It is for the government to ascertain just what the fact is in this respect and to see whether any combination of dealers or brokers exists to use the cold storage facilities to control the price of an undue profit at the expense of the public.

What is true of eggs is possible true of meats and poultry. If the cold storage warehouses are used to raise the prices for these necessities above the normal range a crime is being committed against the public welfare that calls for punishment. The department of justice should be able to ascertain how far an agency that ought to work out to the advantage of the public is employed to its detriment. But punishment alone is not enough. Some method should be found to prevent such a misuse of the cold storage facilities in the future, through inspection and check. This is a large order, but the government, assisted by the state and city agencies, can accomplish it. When prices rise to abnormal points in seasons of normal production it is obvious that manipulation is in progress.

ARKANSAS NOT IN THE EGG BOYCOTT

Women Smile And Say the Profits Average Same All Year.

IS RUN BY A SYSTEM

Lead Hill, Ark., Dec. 9.—The threatened national boycott on eggs does not worry the egg handlers in this part of Arkansas, because the outside price of eggs does not materially alter the profit to the housewives, who in this section handle the eggs as sellers and not as consumers. In fact, the women smile at the idea of a boycott. Past experience has shown that when egg prices are low native hens lay eggs so fast that the gross income is seldom changed and that when prices jump up the number of eggs found in hay mows, soap boxes, fences, corners, buggy sheds and corn cribs is quickly diminished. At least the housewives say so.

The manner of marketing eggs in North Arkansas, especially in rural districts, is unique and it is left altogether in the hands of the farmer's wife. She owns the fowls body and soul, and her husband has no more to say concerning their breeding and care than he has about the operation of the Panama canal.

With the proceed of the egg and chicken sales, not to forget the turkey and ducks and geese, and the by-products, feathers, the wife buys the calico and gingham dresses for herself and her daughters, and also more or less elaborate silk dresses and picnic frocks that must be obtained along about July 4.

When "the woman" comes to town she brings with her a basket in which the eggs are packed, either in sawdust of cotton, and hands them to the merchant's clerk. No word is passed; the clerk silently counts the eggs into the opened-faced cases that always ready, and quietly announces the number of dozens. Then he takes his pencil and his sales book and figures how much the seller has coming to her, and asks in a most-matter-of-fact way:

"Did you want to trade it all or did you want some cash?"

Society

Details concerning the wedding of Mr. Samuel L. Morris, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Morris, of Washington boulevard west, to Miss Helen Margaret Good, of Huntington, which takes place this evening at 7:45 o'clock, are interesting to the groom's many friends, as well as to the acquaintances the bride has formed during visits here. Miss Good is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Good and the wedding will take place at the family residence. Rev. Dr. Smith, pastor of the First M. E. church, is to officiate. The bride will wear a beautiful gown made along simple lines and without train, of broadened charmeuse, accented plaited chiffon and shadow lace. The chiffon petticoat is partially hidden with the delicate broadened material and a garniture of lace is held in place by a rhinestone buckle. The bodice and sleeves are a combination of the chiffon and lace with a tiny rhinestone trimming edging the collarless V shaped neck and ends of sleeves. The bridal bouquet will be of lilies of the valley and bride roses and the bride will also wear the groom's gift, a handsome lavalliere of platinum and jewels. Attending the bride will be her sister, Miss Blanche Good, whose evening gown is of pink broadened silken material made with decoration of shadow lace and she will hold pink sweetpeas and roses. The house has been decorated with charming taste. The ceremony will be performed in the big living room, where in front of the windows a hower effect of green has been built with many ferns, palms and garlands of smilax. Many pink chrysanthemums of the pom pom variety are used in all the rooms, as the bride chose the colors of pink and white. The doorways and chandeliers are hung with smilax, smilax and sweet peas trim the bride's table and everything is suggestive of a happy nuptial event. Music for the wedding ceremony will be supplied by the bride's sister, Miss Lillian Good, violinist, who will play an obligato to the first "Love Song," which Miss Bernice Bippus will sing with Mrs. W. W. Rogers, of Bluffton, at the piano. The bride must, from "Lohengrin" will announce the entrance of the bride, who walks with her father, and after the ring ceremony the barcarolle from "Love Tales of Hoffman" will be played and sung. The groom will be supported by his cousin, Stephen

Morris, Jr., of this city. After congratulations the wedding supper will be served to the sixty guests present. The bride's table is very lovely in its decoration of pink and white. Pink tulle is brought from the chandelier to the corners of the table and pink candles in crystal holders form a straight line down the middle of the table on either side of a tall vase of pink mums. At each place is a small white basket tied with pink tulle and filled with candy. Pink roses and sweet peas fill crystal baskets for the small tables. The bride and groom will take a western trip for a few days. They will make their home in Port Wayne at 1002 Wildwood avenue and the at home date is given as February 1. For traveling the bride will wear a strictly tailored suit of blue cloth with black velvet hat and bird of paradise ornament. Guests from away who attended the wedding includes relatives of the groom from this city, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tucker, Mrs. Percy G. Ollis, of Minneapolis, and two sons; Mrs. J. M. Harper, of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. F. R. Hewitt, of Bramwell, W. Va.

Many friends here of H. B. Hunt, a former resident, but now living at Los Angeles, Cal., will be interested in learning that he is to be married to Mrs. Laura Blair, well known Sunday school worker of that city. A Los Angeles paper says: "The marriage of Mrs. Laura Blair, of 619 South Bonnie Brae street, to Hoyt, Broughton Hunt, formerly of Port Wayne, Ind., will take place Thursday, Dec. 18, at Ramona Park."

Miss Sadie Fleming is spending a few days in Chicago.

Miss Clara Carahan is expected home from Boston, Mass., during the coming week to remain through the holidays.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Dreyer have come from Terre Haute, which has been their home for many years, to this city to reside, and will soon be at home to their friends in what has been the F. B. Shoaff residence, 334 Main avenue.

Miss Ada Beach, of the Y. W. C. A., was given a birthday surprise party on Monday evening by nearly twenty of her friends. A birthday cake with pink candles ornamenting it and dainty gifts and favors were special things of the evening.

Mrs. J. J. Ritter, of West Sutherland street, entertained the members of a social club of which she is a member yesterday afternoon in honor of her guests, the Misses Armstrong and Beland, of Decatur, Ill. A very pleasant time was enjoyed.

Many Port Wayne friends are interested in hearing of the great improvement in health of Edmund Chombs, of Detroit, who has been at Waukesha Springs, Waukesha, Ill., for several weeks.

Jacobs-Pageler.

The wedding of Miss Bertha A. Pageler and Mr. Charles V. Jacobs took place on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pageler, of Montgomery street, with relatives and the most intimate friends present. There were no attendants to either the bride or groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Miller. The house was prettily decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums and roses and the bride couple stood in front of a group of palms while they plighted their troth. The bride presented a lovely appearance, her natural beauty being enhanced by her wedding costume. Her gown was of white crepe de meteor with trimmings of Irish point lace and her veil was held to her hair with a wreath of orange blossoms. She held bride roses. After congratulations had been extended the wedding party was served a bountiful dinner. The bride's table was exceedingly pretty and artistic with its decoration of delicate ferns and bride roses and white candles gave a further nuptial appearance to the rooms and the tables. Today the bride and groom left for a trip to Chicago and Pittsburg and on their return they will go to housekeeping in West Wayne street. Mr. Jacobs travels for the Pigeon Millinery wholesale house and has been connected with the firm for many years. He is very highly regarded. The bride has many friends who have much admiration for her in every way. For traveling the bride wore a smart suit of gray cloth with hat, shoes and gloves to match. Mrs. Henry Dirksen, of Decatur, was an out of town guest at the wedding.

The Bloomingdale parent-teacher club will have its next meeting on Friday afternoon. While the particular talk of the afternoon will concern Christmas books and will be given by Miss Webb, of the public library, there will also be story telling by Miss Schulz, also of the public library corps. Miss Schulz has met with much local success in this line for work and is now eagerly sought as a story teller. The pupils of the Seventh and Eighth grades will open the program with singing. The girls of the 318 grade will care for such small children as mothers are obliged to take to the meeting with them, because of no one to leave the little folks with at home. Parents are cordially invited to come early and visit in the class rooms of the school as the regular program of work will be followed from 1:30 to 3:15 o'clock.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." Kate Douglas Wiggin disclaims all idea of preaching either in her books or in her new field of endeavor, her comedy, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," which is to be seen at the Majestic for three days, starting tomorrow evening.

"Purposeful morality is not the sort I like," Mrs. Wiggin says. "If I must do good let me at least be unconscious of it and escape gringiness. Be as good as you can and let what you are be more powerful than what you say. Don't try to reform your neighbor by preaching at him until you have tried living at him. At all events will keep you straight at all events as well as busy. I have always tried to make my work as sweet, true, wholesome, convincing and natural as I, with my modest talent, can make it. I like people to smile and laugh with me because 'a merry heart doeth good like medicine.' I like people to shed a tear now and then, because the eye that has never wept really sees truth, or love, or sorrow, or God. I write from the level of my own mind and heart without any airs or frills or poses. It is this sort of philosophy, if one may call it philosophy, that I have put into 'Rebecca.' She is herself the sum and substance of the memories of early years draped with the observation of later life. Her joys, her pranks, her tempestuous nature are the surface things that come with observation of the youth about me. Her deep heart of gold is the result of memory—a memory that carries one back to the time when the youthful outlook in life was filled with tenderness for all mankind and was made lovable by pity for the suffering which crowded the heart."

"The Plantain Now An Article of Food Here."

The plantain is coming into its own in the north, or in other words, it is now possible to buy the tropical plantain fruit in Port Wayne. The fruit of the plantain is much like a banana, but it is larger, a greenish yellow in color, less sweet and more starchy than a banana. It is an article of food quite common throughout the tropics. It very likely comes in a general way from the same genus as the dooryard variety found around here with its flat leaves and spikes of greenish white flowers, but the tropical plant grows to a tree in order that it can carry its heavy fruit. However, as Port Wayne housekeepers are bound to try the new vegetable fruit several recipes for cooking it have been furnished The Sentinel and are given here:

Plantain a la Louisianne.—Slice the plantains; sugar them; roll in flour; fry in plenty of lard; place them on a well sugared dish; add a class of Kirsch, a few drops of Marischino and burn.

Plantain (Daube) a la Alciatore.—Peel six plantains; put them in frying pan and cook them in butter; add a pinch of sugar and flour; moisten slightly as if a daube; serve hot.

Crystallized Plantain a la Fernand.—Peel the plantains whole; half cook them; roll them in granulated sugar and put in oven to crystallize.

Fried Plantain a la New Orleans.—Peel and slice the plantains lengthwise. Have lard or oil very hot and place them into it to fry, turning them until cooked. Put on a hot platter and sprinkle with granulated sugar. (It only takes a few minutes to fry.)

Baked Plantain a la Dispatch.—Peel and leave whole. Cover with sugar, a pinch of butter and a little water. Place in an oven in bake, basting them often.

souvenir giving, making it possible for patrons to secure not only teaspoons, but tablespoons, knives, forks and various other more expensive pieces, has met with instant favor. While teaspoons are still to be had by those who desire them, the great majority of matinee attendants are now collecting their sets of other pieces. Silverware souvenir matinees are given every Monday and Thursday.

Friday night Dave Butternore will furnish the extra added feature. Butternore is a champion wrestler and he has agreed to meet all comers at the Empress for a purse of $25. Owing to the length of time required in staging these matches, the wrestlers will appear but once following the second performance. The regular shows will be given as usual. This week's attendance has been heavy, owing to the large number of tickets being sold by the Hope hospital workers. Forty per cent of the net sales of the workers goes to the hospital fund.

The current bill is one of dazzling features and it is finding general favor in all quarters. Saturday will again be toy day at the Empress for the youngsters.

AT THE TEMPLE

Another big bill of six Keith and Orpheum acts will open a three days' engagement at the Temple starting tomorrow afternoon and in addition to the big bill tomorrow is souvenir day at Port Wayne's most popular place of amusement. Every lady attending the matinee will receive a handsome silver spoon as a present from the management. The Eugene Trio are America's foremost horizontal bar artists and they heard the big bill; they just recently returned from Europe. The well known comedienne, Isabelle Miller, and her capable company, will present "The Other Boarder," a roaring comedy offering; Black and White are "Just Two Girls" in a novel acrobatic offering; Hanley and Murray, refined singing and talking duo; Cervo, a piano and accordion virtuoso, and Briant and Mack in their latest comedy offering, "Before the Battle," complete the bill.

USE FOR SILK GLOVES.

The fingers and hands of elbow-length silk gloves wear out, leaving the uppers comparatively new. Where there is a baby in the house these may be turned to good use. Place one of baby's socks on the glove, the leg part of the sock and the hemmed end of the glove being together. Then cut socks for the baby after the patterns. Sew carefully into shape with flat seams. Here you have a good, light-weight sock, only for the cost or trouble of making. The top should be reinforced to withstand the wear and tear caused by safety pins.

THE TEA GOWN.

Prominent among the needs of the moment is the tea gown. At all the great dress displays that are following each other just now in quick succession the tea gown models play an important role. Apart from the accepted decree that they must be artistic, the laws in regard to their fashioning are supremely elastic. The go-as-you-please attitude is paramount in the galore of tea gowns, a condition that, needless to say, is made the most of by the dressmakers. A particularly favorite version boasts the transparent coat of chiffon or net, an arrangement that enables an existing evening dress to be turned to part account.

KITCHENETTES

If you wish your roast to be juicy and tender, put it in a very hot oven and let the oven gradually become moderate. Baste with a tablespoonful of vinegar with a cupful of hot water.

Very often a screw hole gets worn so that the screw will not stay in. To remedy this, cut some narrow strips of cork and fill up the hole completely, and then force the screw in. This will prove just as tight as if driven into a new hole.

WORLD'S QUEER FOLK

MANY OF THEM IN ACTUAL LIFE AND IN BOOKS.

Freaks and Caprices of Nature, Added to Almost Daily, a Source of Wonder and Matter for Study.

We read in the old books catalogued by booksellers as "quaint," books like the "Wonderful Museum," or the "Eccentric Biography," about misers, hermits, gargantuan eaters, strong men, men with horns, women with whiskers, and we wonder at the freaks and caprices of nature, but there is matterial every year for still more en-cyclopedic volumes, year books of "Living Marvels." Read the newspapers. There are wild men in the New England states. Mr. John D. Rockefeller, not believing in holidays, because they "too often lead to extravagance," kept the laborers on his "estate" hard at work on September 1. Letters to the New York Times inform us that there are persons, otherwise sane who are endeavoring to color meerschaum pipes.

There was a hermit in the heart of London a few years ago. He lived in a cellar, "the sole vestige of a house in Clare Market, pulled down and forgotten by its owners." Trademen of the neighborhood gave him food, and he was lazily happy until a journalist discovered him. The hermit was then interviewed and photographed, and the workhouse authorities pulled him out of his cellar and cleaned him, so that his glory as a hermit faded. Mr. Chris Granger of Brooklyn on August 24 ate 39 lobsters weighing from a pound to a pound and a quarter. Not long ago he ate a 15-pound bluefish, six green peppers, nine potatoes, two loaves of bread at a sitting, and, heading not physicians who advise against drink at table, gaily put down 10 bottles of beer. Truly, this is a little world of great wonders.

Go back a few years. Did not John Ruskin deserve a place in an "Encyclopaedia of Wonders?" We do not refer to his handling over Mrs. Ruskin to his artistic friend, Mr. Millais; we do not allude to his crusade against railways and factories. When he suffered from any malady, he always asked what would be the worst for him; then he ordered it and ate it. The physicians told him that pepper was dangerous. He scattered it profusely over every dish. An obstinate man, when he was most disobedient, recovered.

Some of us remember the old man who for 40 years had a telescope at Fifth Avenue and Twenty-third street, in New York. Mr. Frederick J. Seybold, known to thousands only as the professor. This learned stargazer invited the public by little placards to see the Man in the Moon or the Mighty Jupiter. He had studied medicine, chemistry, law. He was a profound astronomer and an ingenious inventor. He was a member of the Grand army. Why did he become a street astronomer? No one knows, and when he died a few days ago in a hospital at Hoboken, all that could be said of him was that he died chiefly from starvation. Living on the canal barges on the Hudson, he had burned all his papers.

Did Edward Harrigan have him in mind when he sketched the part of the street astronomer in "Squatter Sovereignty?" It was not one of Harrigan's best parts; yet the performance was amusing.—Philip Hale in Boston Herald.

Nature of the Beast.

"I thought surely you'd sell that lot of sausages," said the grocer. "You praised it highly enough."
"I praised it too darned much," said the assistant. "It overheard me and wagged its tail."—New York Evening Post.

Bobbie Burns' Granddaughter.
An action has been entered in Dumfries sheriff court by Miss Annie Beckett Burns of Cheltenham, the only surviving granddaughter of the Scottish poet, claiming "to have herself, as the nearest of kin, declared executrix of certain hitherto unconfirmed personal estate of the said Robert Burns." This is a sequel to the recent announcement that the Liverpool Athenaeum had sold for £5,000 the two volumes of Burns' poems and better known as the Glenriddell manuscripts, and that they were likely to go to America, an announcement which brought strong protests from Lord Roseberry, Dr. William Wallace and others.—Westminster Gazette.

Small Reasons for Big Strikes.

The "button strike," as the recent omnibus trouble in London has come to be called, may seem to have had a trivial origin, but many great industrial disputes have sprung from causes quite as small. A few years ago a thousand men struck work at Sunderland because they objected to a policeman in one of the yards, and waited his removal. Tailors have gone on strike because of the edict forbidding the taking of snuff during working hours. In one Yorkshire town all the mill girls refused to work because their employer had painted the window of the workroom facing the street, thus shutting out the view.

British Metaphor.

Pegoud, the French aviator, who loops the loop upside down, has inspired the sport writers of Great Britain to attacks upon metaphor unknown before in that solemn land. William Shakespeare speaking through Hotspur says: "I tell you, my lord fool, out of this nettle danger, we pluck this flower safety," but they speak of the air-man in his lofty tumbling as "plucking the whiskers of catastrophe," which is several sizes beyond Master William.

WON HUSBAND IN TWENTY MINUTES

And But Half of That Time Was Consumed in the Courtship.

MAGISTRATE ON JOB

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 9.—Twenty minutes after Miss Lura Blythe, of Jeffersonville, Ind., met with William E. Morang, of Danville, Va., she became his bride. Magistrate Oscar Hay, of Jeffersonville, just across the river from Louisville, and a famous Greta Grey arranged this twenty-minute wooing and marriage. Some time ago a newspaper story was published to the effect that Magistrate Hay would not only perform the marriage ceremony, but would be glad to arrange matches for the hapless lovers.

The story came to the notice of Mr. Morang, who is a prosperous contracting carpenter, and he called on Magistrate Hay to find him a wife. Mr. Hay had not meant that part of his offer seriously, but he resolved to "make good."

A match was finally arranged with a Louisville woman, and Morang reached Louisville from Danville. He went to the home of his prospective bride and returned to the magistrate's office with a dismal face.

"I can't marry that woman you picked out for me," he said.

"Why not?" asked Mr. Hay.

"She didn't wait for me. She married another fellow a week ago."

"Too bad," said the magistrate. "Well, as I undertook to get you a wife, I'll get you one."

"You'll have to hurry," said Morang. "I've a lot of business in Danville and I'm going back tonight."

The magistrate thought over his list of eligible young women and called up Miss Lura Blythe, daughter of Calvin Blythe, who lived near. He gave such a glowing description of Morang, that Miss Blythe came right over to meet him.

At 7 o'clock they were intoxicated. Ten minutes later they announced that they had accepted each other, and ten minutes later Magistrate Hay performed the marriage ceremony.

They have gone to Danville, Va., to make their home.

REMEDY AS BAD AS THE DISEASE.

"On the seventh of February I contracted a severe cold followed by a cough and final loss of voice. I tried many remedies as none of which did me any good. I then went to my family doctor and he swabbed my throat five or six times with some abominable stuff. I think it was beneficial. The remedy was as bad as the disease. At last the thought struck me—why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and this morning my voice is fairly good and is gradually growing better," writes H. C. Clay, publisher of The Reporter, Rapid City, Montana. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

West, of Evansville, also was arrested on a federal indictment yesterday upon charges of using the mails to defraud. It is alleged that under another name he wrote to officials of Kentucky counties offering to pay $2.50 a thousand for the names of the taxpayers. President Delano Goes to Washington to Take Part in Discussion.

PREPARING FOR THE AUTOMOBILE SHOWS

Bowser Company Prepares Displays for New York and Chicago.

A distinguished passenger on the Pennsylvania Manhattan limited yesterday afternoon was F. A. Delano, president and receiver of the Wabash, who was en route to Washington to take part in the effort of the railways to get the right to increase freight rates 5 per cent.

EFFICIENCY CLUB BANQUET.

Well Known Oil Tank Men Have Affair at Anthony Tonight.

The Efficiency club, which is composed of the officers and the heads of the departments at S. F. Bowser & Company's plant, will have a banquet at the Anthony hotel this evening. There will be about forty covers and Irvin L. Walker, president of the club, will be the toastmaster. Among the speakers will be Harry N. Tolles, of Chicago, of the Sheldon School for Salesmen, and Mr. Henderson, an instructor from that institution. F. S. Bowser, who had been looking after some business in Washington and incidentally visiting his daughter, Miss Mildred Bowser, a student at the National Park seminary, hastened home in order that he might attend the banquet and participate in the festivities.

WILL ATTEND AUTO SHOWS.

S. F. Bowser & Company Will Have Bigger Exhibit Than Ever.

There will be only two general automobile shows in the United States this winter—one at New York January 3 to 10 and one at Chicago January 23 to 30. At each S. F. Bowser & Company will have the greatest exhibit they ever displayed. It will include everything manufactured at the plant in this city and in the list will be a number of newly designed apparatus of great interest and usefulness to automobile people. George A. Townsend, advertising manager for S. F. Bowser & Company, will have charge of these exhibits and he has already commenced arranging for them. Mr. Townsend had charge of all the previous public exhibits of recent years for the Bowser people.

BOWSER CONVENTION.

Big Gathering of Pacemakers Will Be Held January 7, 8 and 9. The management has fixed the date of the gathering of the Bowser pacemakers in this city for their annual convention and banquet. It will be held January 7, 8 and 9, with the banquet at the Anthony hotel on the night of the 9th. Handsome badges for the pacemakers and pretty souvenir programs and mementoes are being gotten out and will be distributed at the proper time. Last year there were less than seventy pacemakers, but this year the number will pass the 100 mark, which means that the percentage of business secured by the salesmen during 1913 was proportionately that much greater than during the preceding year. The company is now in communication with lecturers of national reputation with a view of getting two or three of them here to speak at the banquet.

WABASH SAFETY MEETING.

Committeemen Gather at the Anthony Hotel Today. The greater portion of the members of the division safety committee of the Wabash are here today attending a meeting at the Anthony. Supt. J. C. Sullivan is presiding and there are between twenty-five and thirty others present. Officials who are here, in addition to Mr. Sullivan, are Division Engineer W. S. Dams, Master Mechanic G. W. Smith, Trainmaster C. E. Wells, Assistant Trainmaster A. E. King, Commercial Agent A. L. Gilbert and Freight Agent J. T. McPartland. The good work of this committee is in evidence in the small amount of personal and other accidents in proportion to accidents that occurred in periods prior to the organization of the committee.

TASK TOO MUCH FOR HIM.

Engineer Dropped Dead After Lacing Wife's Shoe.

Lacing his wife's high top boots last evening was too much for William Dailey, an engineer, residing in Cadillac, Mich. He dropped dead after finishing up one of the shoes. He was a pioneer engineer on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road.

RUMORED CUT AN EXAGGERATION.

The rumors on the streets concerning a reduction of the force at the Fort Wayne Electric works are great exaggerations of the fact. A week or more ago the company dropped over 100 names from the pay rolls, most of the persons affected being girls in the small motor department. "There have been no suspensions since," said W. F. Melching, who has charge of the employment department. "We do not expect to make further reductions and are looking for conditions after the holidays, which will justify the reinstatement of the dismissed employees," continued Mr. Melching. C. J. Shafer, W. E. Moore, H. D. Shefel and J. Reidel, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

R. Hucho, a crane director at the Pennsylvania boiler shop, has recovered from his illness and resumed his work. Boilermaker L. Sanders, who was sick several days, resumed work in the Pennsylvania shops today.

BUSINESS GOOD ON NICKEL PLATE.

Both local and through freight business on the Nickel Plate is better at present than usual for this time of year and were the weather to get cold and make a smaller train tonnage necessary, the company would be put to considerable trouble to furnish the power and crews to handle the business. A good feature of the business is the large percentage of loaded cars in both directions. The west end is particularly busy and Engineer Robert Tremmer, who took a train into Stony Island several days ago, is being held there to help handle the business accumulating there. He may be retained there all winter.

GAVE CAPT. TOOMEY A COIN.

Mr. Grady, engaged in special work at the Bass foundry, gave Capt. Thomas Toomey a twenty-five cent gold piece this morning, which the captain will always preserve as a most highly valued souvenir of the mintage of long ago. This diminutive gold piece bears on one side the legend California at the outer upper margin, 1832 in the center, and gold on the lower margin of one side, while it has the head of an Indian on the other side. Mr. Grady, who has been an extensive traveler, got the piece in California two years ago.

ENGINEER WARD HAS RECOVERED.

M. E. Ward, the Nickel Plate engineer who was so badly hurt in the back last July, when he fell from the tender of his engine at the water tank near the round house, will report for work next Monday. He has full recovered, despite the fact that his injuries at first were believed to be permanent.

HAD INDEX FINGER LACERATED.

Miss Louise Melchert, employed in "starking" armatures at the Fort Wayne Electric works, had the index finger of her right hand painfully cut this morning. Dr. Fred Schultz, who attended the young lady, had to take two stitches in closing the wound.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Ray Miller, Pennsylvania engine dispatcher, is sick and off duty.

Nickel Plate Fireman Earle Helsel is off duty on account of sickness.

A. R. Fullerton, Nickel Plate fireman, is off duty on account of sickness.

C. P. Meahan, caller at the Pennsylvania round house, went to Hammond this morning to spend a couple days shooting rabbits.

O. J. Bantjes resumed the duties of storekeeper at the Pennsylvania round house this morning. He was sick two weeks.

Allen Hamilton, who had some toes and a foot bruised badly over a week ago, resumed his work in the Pennsylvania machine shop this morning.

Fireman W. M. Swinehart, of the Stony Island yards of the Nickel Plate, is spending a few days with friends and relatives in the city.

William H. Stuart, caller of Nickel Plate crews, is taking a few days' rest and Eli Shusman, the night caller, is looking after the day trick.

John Otis inspected 200 wheels for the Erie and Mr. Lindaman inspected 200 wheels for the New York Central at the Bass foundry today.

The saw mills of Perrine-Armstrong company resumed work this morning. They had been closed two days, awaiting the arrival of some logs past due.

Conductor M. Deadrick and Brakeman G. M. Grummons, of the Nickel Plate, are taking a brief lay off to look after private business.

Nickel Plate Brakeman L. N. Henry was called to his mother's bedside at the family home in South Whitley yesterday. She is very sick.

About forty covers and Irvin L. Walker, who had been taking a lay off on account of visitors at his home, resumed work yesterday, taking No. 4 to Chicago last night.

At noon yesterday W. A. Dowling, a laborer in the Pennsylvania shop, had a foot so badly injured that he will be unable to work for a few days. The accident happened in the smith shop, where

DR. CHARLES R. DANCER.

Dowling had been sent for some steel pieces.

Miss Stella O'Leary, daughter of Truck Foreman James O'Leary, of the Pennsylvania, has returned home after an absence of a year, during which she was with relatives and friends in Munich.

W. E. Campbell, C. A. Kiger, C. Fritchard and R. F. Swinehart, of the Nickel Plate round house, are in the vicinity of Knox shooting rabbits. They are expected to return home tonight.

Fireman E. Spoor, of the Nickel Plate, has gone to the home of his parents in Payne, O., to remain until he is able to resume work. He had one of his hands injured some time ago.

Fireman C. A. Price, who fell from a Nickel Plate engine at Oakwood over a week ago and was painfully hurt, was able to get over to the round house to see the boys yesterday. He will not be able to report for work for a week or more, however.

Fred C. Bohman, timber purchaser for the Perrine-Armstrong company, left at noon for Petersburg, Ind., where he will be engaged until the holidays inspecting timber. The Perrine-Armstrong company get a great deal of the timber handled at the mills in this city from southern Indiana.

E. F. Thomson, of Chicago, is here to spend the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomson, of 448 West Williams street. Mr. Thomson is stenographer for President and Receiver F. A. CROWD GREET'S NEW PRESIDENT.

Governor Tener Met by Throng That Had to Be Dispersed by Hotel Attendants.

New York, Dec. 10.—Governor J. K. Tener reached his hotel shortly after 12 o'clock. The National league club owners greeted him in a corridor, and such a crowd of enthusiastic followers that hotel attendants had to disperse the throng. The governor was then taken upstairs to be installed.

An opening meeting was arranged for the ceremonies incident to the installation of the new president, then the doors were closed and business transacted with Governor Tener in the chair. Many matters to have been taken up yesterday were put over till today.

President Ebberets, of the Brooklyn club, renewed his $25,000 offer to Garry Herrmann, of Cincinnati, for Joe Tinker. To clinch the trade he agreed to make a $2,000 deposit. He and Herrmann held a conference but the deal was not closed.

AHEAD OF THE RECORD.

New York, Dec. 10.—At noon, the end of the sixtieth hour, the teams entered in the six-day bicycle races were in the same relative position. The eight leaders had covered 1,225 miles three laps and were five miles one lap ahead of the previous record.

Clarence Magee, of the Brooks Construction company, has returned from Lima, O., where his bid was accepted for the construction of a large concrete water basin for the Ohio state hospital for the criminally insane.

Dr. E. E. Morgan, Dr. Van Sweringen and Dr. Morgan were re-elected. Dr. W. O. Gross and Dr. C. G. Beall were elected delegates to the annual state meeting and following the business session clinical cases were presented by Dr. Lyman T. Rawles and Dr. Van Sweringen.

RITCHIE IS FAVORITE.

Odds of 10 to 4 Are Offered by Backers of the Lightweight Champion.

San Francisco, Dec. 10.—Although Willie Ritchie, champion lightweight, is a favorite at odds of 10 to 4 for his twenty-round battle tonight with Harlem Tommy Murphy, interest in the match is as keen as if the betting public found it difficult to make a choice between the fighters.

This will be Murphy's first try at the championship, on which he has had his heart set since the night in Brooklyn fourteen years ago when he received $150 for knocking out another young hopeful. Both men are in fine trim, according to reports from their training camps. They rested today, each being well within the 135-pound limit that must be made at 8 o'clock tonight, an hour and a quarter before the fight.

WILL WAIT FOR STAGG.

Not Likely That Vote Will Be Taken on Chicago-Harvard Football Game.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Harvard's proposal for a Chicago-Harvard football game at Cambridge next October will be discussed at a meeting today of the athletic board of the University of Chicago. Final action on Harvard's invitation may be taken at the meeting, but it is thought probable the vote will be postponed until Coach A. A. Stagg returns next week from Pinehurst, N. C. Acceptance or rejection of the invitation is said to hinge on Stagg's attitude. In his letter presenting Harvard's invitation to the board Stagg expressed no opinion as to the advisability of such a game.

BOARD WILL MOVE ON WITH PAVING

Court Order Modified and Advertisements Will Be Continued.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

The street paving projects of the board of works are now in precisely the actual status they were before the restraining order procured in the superior court by Andrew J. Moynihan was issued. Judge Yaple today modified his order to such extent as will permit the board to go ahead with the necessary advertisements for bids. There had been one publication on the 6th inst., before the injunction was issued. The second advertisement will be published next Saturday. The court today also changed the date of the hearing of the suit from the 15th to the 15th of December. Meanwhile there may be a further modification of the temporary order of court that will permit the board to receive bids for the pavements, leaving for determination in the suit for injunction the right of the board to make awards and to enter into contracts. The right of the board to advertise for bids seems to establish the presumption of the board's right to receive bids. The officials of the administration express confidence that a hearing of the case will make clear that everything in connection with the paving program has been regular, legal and in every particular valid.

Eliza Street People Join City.
Resident property owners on Eliza street, one of the eight thoroughfares included in the paving program sought to be held up by the injunction suit, today filed in the superior court a petition for the court's consent to the appearance of the law firm of O'Rourke & Lucke as co-counsel for the city to look after the Eliza street people in all matters where their interests are affected. They are very determined on that street to have it improved and want to be sure of it the coming year. Hence their desire to be represented by counsel in the suit.

Mayor Will Call It In Order to Make Ready for Final Clean-Up.

In view of the fact that there is to be but one more regular meeting of the present city council, which will be held Tuesday evening, December 26, Mayor Grace decided today to call a special meeting to be held some evening next week. The purpose will be to enable the council to prepare for a general clean-up of any matters that should be ready for final disposition at the closing session of the present body. Among matters to be presented will be the contract for furnishing 1,200 tons of coal to the No. 2 pumping station of the waterworks department. This will give the council and the committee on contracts and franchises time to consider the matter and dispose of it at the regular and final session. It is probable that the ordinance to empower the board of works to purchase the land needed for the Coombs street bridge extension will be brought up for reconsideration at the special meeting. A number of essential matters are expected to develop from the various departments by the time of the special session upon which action of the council will be desired.

REQUIRE LARGER SECTION.

Necessary to Take Twenty-five Lots to Accomplish Disannexation.

It has been found necessary to greatly enlarge the tract proposed for disannexation from the city to further the project of grade separation at Wayne trace and the Pennsylvania railroad. There is no law by which the city and county can unite in doing this work, the site of which lies in both city and county, and it was decided by agreement of the city board of works and the county board of commissioners that the city should disannex enough territory to accommodate the improvement and let the county go ahead with it. A small triangular plot was thought sufficient for the purpose, but there are but four owners of the property and all are non-residents, so the difficulty of getting them to petition for disannexation is great. It was decided, therefore, to enlarge the section for separation from the city and it now includes territory bounded by a line beginning at the center of Fenker avenue and Raymond street, south on Fenker to Polician, southwest on Polician to Pontiac, east on Pontiac to Raymond and west on Raymond to the point of beginning. There are thirty-two lots with nineteen owners in the territory proposed for disannexation. It will be necessary to get the petition signed by at least ten of these owners and Commissioner Wm. C. Schieler is now busy at this task, whereof the difficulties are great by reason of the non-residence of many of them.

BAUER BLOCKS THE WAY.

Prevents Passage of Ordinance to Buy Land for Bridge Extension.

For no special reason that he was able to disclose, Councilman Bauer last night put up opposition to the passage of an ordinance to authorize the board of works to purchase for $750 certain small parcels of land needed for the proposed extension southward of the Coombs street bridge. All of the fourteen councilmen present, save Bauer, voted for the measure and many of them begged him to vote with them and later to change his vote and let the measure pass. Bauer, however, refused to be influenced. Councilman Rogge filed written notice at once that he would call the ordinance up for reconsideration at the next meeting. The measure had been placed on third reading by suspension of the rules and a unanimous vote was necessary to pass it. The council passed ordinances raising the salaries of the city sealer, the city electrician and the assistant fire chief from $150 to $125 per month in each case. Ordinances were also passed transferring $300 to the city engineer's account to be applied with $400 already unexpended in that account to the drainage of the city and other flood prevention work. The ordinance requires the Lake Erie and Western railroad to maintain watchmen twenty-four hours each day at the main street crossing of that railroad; appropriating $1,075 to the special account to pay for property condemned and to improve the level of works' resolution providing for the elevation of the Nickel Plate and Lake Erie tracks at Osage street.

To the finance committee was referred an ordinance appropriating $200 to the garbage fund to meet an expected deficiency that will be developed before the end of the year.

After a bit of a wrangle the council passed a resolution requesting the opinion of the attorney general of Indiana on the validity of claims presented by the council's committee on elections—Messrs. Bauer, Braun and Haller—for special services in connection with the recent municipal elections. The law says councilmen shall not receive additional pay for committee work, but the three mentioned were urged by the election commissioners of the city to put in claims. The work performed was laborious and took much time and the claims at least are just if not legal. Councilman Wagner offered a substitute resolution calling upon the election committee members to pay back to the city the money they had received as extra pay. Pilgner, Rogge, Schroeder, Wagner and Welch supported the Wagner resolution, which was lost decisively.

An ordinance was referred to the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances proposing to annex territory north of the city. It lies between the St. Joseph river and the Lake Shore railroad and already is well built up, having a population of about 400. The injunctions against the board of works and city council restraining further procedure in street paving matters until after a hearing on December 17, was read and ordered into the record.

WILL GIVE CITY 12 SQUARE MILES.

If the ordinance annexing territory north of the city is finally passed by the city council, as it doubtless will be soon, it will increase the area of the city to just about even twelve square miles, or 7,680 acres.

PARK BOARD HAS LITTLE.

Little else than routine business is scheduled for attention at this afternoon's regular meeting of the board of park commissioners.

The Harneyer home, 1801 Gay street, was quarantined today for diphtheria. A summary of the health records shows twenty cases of diphtheria in twenty families, and five cases of scarlet fever in four families.

Children's Contest Opens

Toy House Given Away FREE to Children Under 16 Years of Age.

Realizing that its house coloring contest among the school children of Fort Wayne last Christmas had an educational value previously undreamed of, the Wildwood Builders Company has decided to offer prizes in a second contest. This competition opens today, and will be merely a step in advance in the study of exterior decoration. Last winter, pen drawings of a certain house built by the Wildwood Company, were distributed by the thousand among the children of the city and prizes were offered for the most artistic coloring. Seven hundred boys and girls colored the pictures and returned them and on New Year's Day the prizes were awarded. The children who turned in the best work were rewarded by prizes of new, ratty dollar bills. But the company has gone a little further this year and has printed a large number of "cardboard cut-out" houses. These come in large sheets of cardboard, ruled and dotted ready to cut out and fold into shape. However, they are only in black and white and prizes are offered as follows for the best coloring, in either crayon, ink, or watercolor: First prize, $2.50; second prize, $1.50; third prize, $1.00; fourth prize, an individually designed toy house. An order to allow the contestants to see what other children are doing, the company will have on display in the Traction office window, on Calhoun St., the best houses that are returned from day to day.

IN THE CHURCHES THE OTHER FELLOW NEEDS YOUR HELP

You Owe Him a Real Duty, Says Evangelist "Jim" Burwick.

OTHER CHURCH NEWS

"The other fellow needs your help," said Evangelist "Jim" Burwick, in his address last evening at the second service of a series of revival meetings at the First M. E. church. A large audience was present and his talk, last night was exceedingly interesting, as he brought out many expressions of the railroad and also told many of his experiences with his fellow workmen.

He used for his text the story of the healing of the man with the palsy, Mark 2, 1-12. He told how anxious the friends of the man with the palsy were to bring him to Christ to be healed; how they had to cut a hole in the roof so they could get him before Jesus. He used this story as an example of what could be done to help the other fellow today. Then he explained to his listeners the other side of the story, that is, how many men were lost just because some church member failed to do his duty.

In the afternoon at the one hour service from 3 to 4 o'clock Mr. Burwick gave an interesting talk on "The Bible." Mr. and Mrs. George Crane sang several selections at this and also at the evening service, which were highly appreciated.

These services are under the auspices of the R. Y. M. C. A. association, but Mr. Whitbeck wishes it to be announced that these meetings are not for railroad men alone, but for the entire public and that everybody is cordially invited.

DEDICATE NEW PARSONAGE.

Rev. J. A. Beatty Conducts Services at St. Paul's M. E. Church.

Rev. J. A. Beatty, district superintendent, conducted the dedicatory services of the new parsonage at the St. Paul's M. E. church last evening. He delivered an impressive sermon in the auditorium of the church.

Before the services the ladies served a supper and all were given a chance to see the interior of the parsonage. A basket was placed at the door and as each person passed out they dropped their offerings into it.

The new parsonage was decorated to suit the occasion and it was declared by all who visited it that it was one of the finest of the smaller church parsonages.

The Newest Thing in Auto Robes Will be Demonstrated Here Thursday

When we bought these Auto Robe Shawls, there were so many special features about them that the manufacturer agreed to our proposal of a demonstration. The robes are here, and Thursday a representative from the factory will be here to explain their many superior advantages to our patrons.

It is difficult in black and white, to tell of these Robe Shawls. They are in beautiful plaids—four-ply, which makes them practically wind and water-proof. Being all-wool, they are warmer than fur or plush. Splendidly large in size—54x84—they are large enough to wrap up three or four persons comfortably. Seven pounds in weight, yet delightfully soft in texture.

STAGE LETTER by NORMAN LIANE CARRERA.

New York, Dec. 9.—People sometimes wonder where Oscar Hammerstein makes all the money that he does in grand opera ventures. There is a certain gold mine at the corner of Seventh avenue and Forty-second street, New York, which supplies the answer to this question. The gold mine is Hammerstein's Victoria theater. At present it is being run by William Hammerstein, one of Oscar's sons. The Hammerstein policy for the Victoria is: "Get the sensations. No matter what they cost—get 'em, and fill the house!" On that historic stage have appeared the chorus girls who shot W. E. D. Stokes; Don, the talking dog; the Wrestling Cheese; Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, and many other startling novelties. Next week will mark the appearance of a headliner who will doubtless pack 'em in for some time to come—Liane Carrera, daughter of Anna Held. Liane is 18 and beautiful. She is said to look just as her mother did at her age. She will appear in a musical farce written for her by Irving Berlin, and will be assisted by Hilariou Ceballos, an important dancer, and ten show girls. Among other things, she will give an imitation of her mother singing, "I Just Can't Make My Eyes Believe." There are rumors that Mamma Held is seriously displeased over her daughter's adoption of a stage career, but Liane denies them. Cyril Maude, the English star, after getting away to a poor start in "The Second in Command," has given New York two splendid characterizations in subsequent production—first as the philanthropic Captain Barley in W. W. Jacob's "Beauty and the Barge," and now as "Grumpy" in a play of that name, one of his London successes. As Barley, whose attentions to ladies of all ages are characterized by himself Maude was delightful. In "Grumpy" he is an octogenarian, dragged into a mystery of crime against his will, and solving it in a manner peculiarly his own. Maude's portrayal of the querulous, keen-witted old man is truly a great piece of work. The same play is running simultaneously at four Yiddish theaters. Its name is "Mendel Bellis." There are four different versions, but of course, they are all pretty much alike in their narration of the Russian real life drama. The houses are all doing big business. Everybody who goes to see Roland B. Molinex's play, "The Man Inside," enjoys the wonderful performance of John W. Cope as "Pop," Old, drunkard, thief and beggar. Some people doubtless thrill at the opium-joint scene, with its dim lights, its carefully arranged off-stage noises, its elaborately presented "atmosphere." Many auditors must be interested in Molinex's plea for a "court of rehabilitation," his prison reform measure which he is allowed to set forth in detail and with vociferation. But whether or not you care for prison reform or for Belasco stagecraft, you must get an evening's joy out of "Pop." You laugh with, or at, the old scoundrel, in his every twist and turn. The work of the others, good as the cast is, is the speaking of lines by actors. You constantly realize that they are actors, speaking lines in behalf of a propaganda. But "Pop's" a real "Pop," and he's a treat. Nickel Plate Engineer Banner Fullerton, who had been attending court in a case wherein the company is the defendant in a damage suit, has returned to his duties on the road.

Sure, Safe Way To Banish Hairs

(Aids to Beauty.) The electric treatment for removing hairy growth is rapidly falling into disuse since it has been found that a thick paste made with powdered delatone and water gives more satisfactory results and works much quicker. This delatone paste is applied to the objectionable hairs and after two or three minutes it is rubbed off and with it comes every trace of hair. Washing the skin to free it from the remaining delatone leaves it soft and spotless. Buying the delatone in an original package insures strength and purity.

William F. Kahlenberg Dies
Very Suddenly from Apoplexy.

WAS STRICKEN IN BED

William F. Kahlenberg, a well known Adams township farmer, residing near New Haven, died suddenly shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday night from a severe attack of apoplexy. Mr. Kahlenberg was fifty years of age and had been in ill health for some time. Three years ago he suffered an attack of apoplexy from which he never fully recovered.

Coroner E. H. Kruse and Deputy Coroner J. E. McArdle were called to New Haven this morning. Dr. Kruse declares that his death was in all probability hastened by constant worry over a damage suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company in which he was the plaintiff. About two years ago when a Pennsylvania freight train figured in a wreck east of the city, a car containing oil was hurled from the tracks against Mr. Kahlenberg's barn and the structure caught fire, burning down both the barn and residence. Worry over his loss and the suit he filed against the railway company, it is believed, led to the second attack of apoplexy.

During the day Tuesday Mr. Kahlenberg appeared to be in his usual health and in the evening he attended a social gathering at the home of Mrs. Bradtmiller, a neighbor. Returning home with his family Mr. Kahlenberg retired about 11 o'clock. Ten minutes later he started to shake in a violent manner and lapsed into unconsciousness, dying before medical aid could be summoned.

The deceased had been a resident of Allen county practically all his life and was widely known. He is survived by the widow and several children.

"CASCARETS" THE BEST LAXATIVE

If constipated, bilious, headachy, Stomach sour—
Clean up tonight!

Get a 10-cent box now.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.—Adv.

DEFENDS INDIA MISSION WORK

Minister Issues Reply to Criticism of Activity

BY A HINDU DOCTOR

New York Dec. 9.—Defense of mission work in India was made by the Rev. Donohugh, for the last seven years a missionary of the Methodist Episcopal Church in that country. The statements of Mr. Donohugh were in reply to criticisms of the work made by Dr. Kesava Shastri, an educated Hindu, of Benares, India, in an address recently before the International Purify Congress at Minneapolis, Minn.

"One may question seriously the wisdom of such a congress asking a Hindu to give any views, either on the subject of purity or of missions," Mr. Donohugh said. "The views of Hindus or of Mohammedans on such questions are not to be judged by what these men say on the platform, but by conditions in India."

One of the statements by Dr. Shastri was that "if Americans knew how much money is being spent on missionary work and how little is being accomplished the donations for proselyting would stop at once."

Mr. Donohugh said that the Methodist Episcopal church alone has 241,000 converts in India, and that $700,000 a year is spent there, of which $150,000 is raised in that country.

"These figures however," he stated, "do not take into account that about two-thirds of the money spent on Methodist missions in India does not go to the care of these Christians at all, but is put into our vast educational plant, including boarding schools, high schools and colleges, which reach many thousands of non-Christians. Thus the cost of obtaining or caring for each Christian is reduced to a sum approximating $1 a year."

Mr. Donohugh said that during the last ten years the Christian community in India had increased from three to four million. He denied the charge that the low class Hindus are sometimes won over to the faith by material considerations.

"It frequently happens," Mr. Donohugh said, "that after the famine is over the contrast between the Christian sympathy on the one hand and the heartless indifference and even dishonest handling of famine funds by Hindus and Mohammedans on the other causes large numbers of persons to seek baptism."

"A wide circulation of such false and misleading statements as those of Dr. Shastri tends to harm the greatest force for good that India has ever known. Few well informed students of Indian life can be found who will say that practically all the reform which has come to pass in Hinduism and Mohammedanism can be traced directly to Christian influence."

A HINT TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

"When my children show the slightest symptoms of being croupy I give them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and when I have a cough or cold on the lungs I take it for a few days and am soon rid of the cold," writes Mrs. C. J. Fry, Ferguson Sta., Mo. The first symptom of croup is hoarseness, give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains no narcotic. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. FINALLY GOT HER FULLY DISGUSTED

Daisy Sessler Says Husband Drove Her Away by His Indecencies.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

Because they are unfit to be described even in a divorce complaint Daisy Sessler declines to go into detail as to what her husband, Louis Sessler, did, but in her petition to the circuit court she generalizes with the statement he committed such acts of indecency as obliged her to leave him. She says he was insanely jealous, constantly nagged her, gave her no peace of mind and was guilty of conduct that rendered his personal appearance so obnoxious as to make himself and person disgusting to the plaintiff. Louis also, it appears from the complaint, threatened to throw his wife and her belongings into the river. They were married in November, 1911, and separated in March, 1913.

Josie LaRosa Is Free.
Josie LaRosa, the Sicilian girl who almost killed Mrs. Josephine Saceri by stabbing her with a long dirk knife the first of last July during a melee in the Italian colony on Melita street, was given a hearing before Judge Eggeman in the juvenile court today. There was no doubt of the girl's guilt, but there were strong mitigating circumstances and Judge Eggeman paroled Josie to Police Matron Fannie Which, who will undertake to keep the fiery young woman out of further trouble. A part of the condition imposed by the court is that Miss LaRosa shall discharge the bill for hospital and medical attendance incurred by Mrs. Saceri as the consequence of her wounds. There was a big attendance from the Melita street colony in the circuit court.

Shields Gets $2,000 Damages.
After being out all night the circuit jury that tried the case of Frank Shields against the Nickel Plate railroad for $25,000 damages for the loss of a leg and the loss of toes on the other leg, returned a verdict this morning awarding the plaintiff $2,000. The accident occurred at the Fulton street crossing. Shields contended that cars were backed down upon him as he was attempting to cross the tracks and the railroad set up that Shields was drunk at the time and was injured as the result of his own carelessness.

Says He Loved Other Ladies.
May Carr discovered that her husband, Lester C. Carr, didn't care a continental copper for his marriage vows and in her divorce complaint, filed in the circuit court, she cites alleged instances of his specific immorality. Otherwise, Lester struck and beat her, did not provide and she is obliged to work as a cook in restaurants for her support. They were married in February, 1910, and separated thirteen months later.

Followed Him on Streets.
Frank McGuire's divorce complaint against Luella McGuire, in the superior court, says she falsely accused him of associating with other women, that she followed him on the streets, would not let him go out of the house unless she went along and that she refused to let him associate with his friends and would not let them visit him. Besides nagging him until life became unbearable. They were married in September, 1911, and separated last month.

Notes of the Courts.
Edward F. Clausweier has sued Andrew J. Archer, et al., in the circuit court for $90 on a note.
In the superior court today, on motion of City Attorney H. G. Hogan, Judge Yaple modified the temporary restraining order in the suit of Andrew J. Moynihan against the board of works and city council to prevent the consummation of paving contracts performed and contemplated to such extent as to permit the city to go ahead and complete its advertisements for bids according to law. Hearing of the suit was changed from the 17th to the 15th inst.
Minnie Menzies was granted a divorce from John B. Menzies in the superior court today.
The case of the Strothers' Co-operative company vs. William K. Noble will be heard in the superior court March 9.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 10.—Notwithstanding reassuring statements from President Fick, of the City National bank, and from the Omaha clearing house, published this morning, a large crowd of depositors stood in half a dozen lines before the City National long before the hour for opening.

When at 10 o'clock the doors were thrown open the announcement was made that thirty and sixty days' notice would be required from savings depositors. Checks on the commercial department of the bank were paid as fast as tellers could handle them.

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF, SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Get a 25 cent bottle and try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse."

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through the hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it—Adv.

CHICAGO SCHOOLGIRLS IN EGG BOYCOTT.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—A student strike is always an effective strike, greatly feared by the powers that be. When the students joined the great Russian strike of 1905, there was nearly a bloody revolution. Today American students have joined the strike against eggs—the egg kings.

The famous Hyde Park high school of Chicago, one of the finest in the country, is the first in the field with an "egg strike."

The Hyde Park girls—members of the domestic science course—originated the move. "Not an egg will they use!" exclaimed Miss Iva Campbell, their instructor. "They have voted unanimously to join the strike and so I've been forced to drop eggs altogether from my recipes for this month.

ETHEL NELLY N., A HYDE PARK DOMESTIC SCIENCE STUDENT.

"But that is easy. Eggs are not nearly so necessary" as many housewives think. For an eggless breakfast I know of hundreds of possible menus. This strike is going to be a great thing just to teach housewives to use such menus often, even if it doesn't break the high price of eggs."

The Hyde Park girls voted to join the strike at one of their weekly luncheons, which, according to custom, must not cost more than ten cents a plate. Their first ten-cent eggless menu was as follows:

- Consomme.
 Fried Pork Chops.
 Tomato Salad.
 Apple Pie.

"We had to serve apple pie instead of pumpkin, and omit the mayonnaise dressing from the salad," said Katharine Munger, leader of the striking girls. "But we simply will have to make such sacrifices—until the price of eggs comes down."

"And let all the school girls in America boycott eggs and just watch that price come down."

FURNITURE FOR THE SEASONS

Adjustable Upholstered Seats and Pillows Make Wicker Sets Good the Year Round.

To have separate sets of sofas and chairs for summer and winter is beyond the means of many householders. Moreover, few modern homes have storage space sufficient to accommodate an entire suite of temporarily unused furniture. Consequently the recent fashion of buying a set of really handsome and durable wicker and then having attachable seats and pillows to fit the various pieces, is rapidly gaining favor. These cushions, whether of plush, brocade or merely printed material, are easily put away when the season for using upholstery rolls round again. A set of attachable upholstery consists of seats for six chairs and one settee, a long, round pillow and two huge, square pillows. If a housewife knows anything whatever of the mattress-making art she can get up a set of these cushions and pillows at comparatively small expense.

Luxemburg's Soldiers.

The grand duchy of Luxemburg, which recently, because of the strong-minded young woman who rules the little country, has occupied considerable space in the newspapers, has an army, including musicians, numbering 250 men. The soldiers of Luxemburg are sumptuously lodged. Each one has his room with hot and cold water, all the conveniences of a hotel and flowers at the window. The trade of soldier in the grand duchy is not for war but for administrative uses. For this reason the recruits are most carefully selected. They are required to be handsome young fellows whose height is not to be below five feet six inches. Recently a candidate presented himself who received full admiration of the jury of admission. Handsome and well made, he measured not less than five feet ten inches, but the new soldier disturbed all the regulations of the army. It was found necessary to have a uniform made for him, linen of special size and his bed had to be lengthened.

War Minister "Moved On."
 Colonel Seely, the head of England's army, was among the spectators at the recent army maneuvers, and was entirely unrecognized. He was in a gray tweed cap, and looked the most unassuming of men.

Once the village policeman, who was busy asking little urchins and their round-eyed sisters to stand back, passed his arm in front of the minister for war, who meekly gave way. He seemed to enjoy the sight thoroughly, and ran from point to point with much energy. He had arrived in a big car, which did not even carry one of the little flags which indicate an official or a privileged spectator.

What Women Are Doing.

Women make the best military spies, but love sometimes upsets their plans.

All German states now appoint women as factory and other inspectors. Three thousand Kansas women, members of social study clubs in more than 100 hundred towns of the state, are going to devote the entire study year this season to food and drugs, public health and sanitation.

A tablet in the hall of a new lodging house for women in London refers to the fact that the building is erected in honor of Mary Victoria, wife of Lord Curzon, who was Mary Leiter of Chicago before her marriage.

Girl's Swimming Feat.

Miss Nora Cochrane, an East Cowes young lady, eighteen years of age, has succeeded in swimming across the Solent from Lope, on the Hampshire coast, to Egypt Point, at Cowes, which is just under four miles, in one hour twenty-eight minutes.

She had no refreshment on the way, and was not exhausted by her effort. The young lady, who is on the teaching staff of the Council schools at East Cowes, holds the certificate of the Royal Life-Saving society.—London Mail.

OLD CONTRACTORS TO QUIT

English Company That Dammed the Nile to Retire From Business Next Year.

The passing away of one of the greatest contracting firms in the world, John Aird & Co., is announced for next year. The firm, which dammed the Nile and carried out other great works throughout the world, will cease to exist next September, by which time all outstanding contracts will have been completed.

The decision to go out of business has been taken by the present Sir John Aird, who succeeded his father in 1911, and inherited from him a fortune of over $5,000,000. The reason given is that, while the risks of contracting are as great as they ever were, the profits are not nearly so large as they were some twenty or thirty years ago. Great plants will be distributed and a staff of engineers and workmen, who are said to have no superiors, will be seeking new positions as a result of the action.

John Aird & Co. was started in 1848 by John Aird, a Scottish mason, who came to London from Ross-shire, and after following his trade for several years, was appointed superintendent of the Phoenix Gas company at Greenwich. There he learned the business that gave him his start, and the first big undertaking of his firm was the laying of water and gas mains for London.

VANDERBILT HAS WISE GROOM

Possesses Sure Way of Telling Those Whose Riches Are Newly Acquired.

Newport, as all the world knows, is getting more and more overrun with the nouveaux riches. The nouveaux riches are buying up the finest estates, and the old and exclusive Newport families are retiring to more isolated resorts.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt, at one of his dinners at his luxurious Newport farm, said of a nouveau riche who was assuming an extraordinary disdain for all things common and plebeian:

"This chap's way of turning up his nose reminds me of a groom of mine who used to say:

"Keep yer eye on what a man turns up his nose at, and ye'll know what he's been raised on."

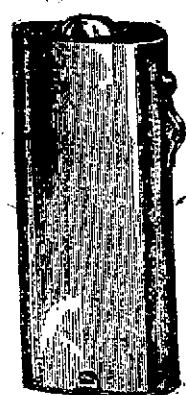

Novel Church.

Without sectarian ideas or denominational teaching, a gospel meeting is held all the summer months in the unique Boardwalk church at Atlantic City. This year—the fifth of the church's existence—services are being conducted each Lord's day morning in the Bijou theater—a room used usually for moving pictures. The Rev. Robert Elwood is the founder and pastor. It is a church without a choir, officer or single member and without a collection plate. The business men of Atlantic City, as well as the visitors, think it worth while, and maintain this gospel lighthouse by the sea. Ninety per cent. of the audience is new each Sunday. Persons gladly turn in from the boardwalk at the call for worship. The audience is reverent, though cosmopolitan. One Sunday morning when a test was made every civilized country was represented in the large congregation, as well as most of the states of the Union.—Christian Herald.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

FROM DEATH TO LIFE

THE WONDERFUL RESULTS NOW ATTAINED BY THE USE OF INTRAVENOUS MEDICATION DEMONSTRATED BY THE UNITED SPECIALISTS AT THEIR INSTITUTE, 124 E. WASHINGTON STREET.

Of course, it is impossible to raise the dead, but the highly scientific and modern methods employed by the United Specialists have restored to health and happiness many afflicted who would have otherwise been doomed to an untimely end. The crowded condition of the offices and the many testimonials from cured and satisfied patients is ample evidence of the highly superior methods they employ.

They treat most all chronic and nervous diseases, such as Rheumatism, Anaemia, Tuberculosis, Catarrhal Piles, Rupture, Fistula, Varicocele, Piles, Prostatic Troubles, Stomach, Liver and Bowel Trouble and Special diseases of both men and women.

Of course, no physician can cure every case (except the Great Physician) and recognizing the fallibility of the human mind, the United Specialists positively will not treat any case where they do not believe that they could give results that would be entirely satisfactory, and the many, many tears that have been shed when they were compelled to turn away a hopeless case is truly and indeed. Yet, they feel that they must do their duty, however, painful it may be. Their office hours are 9-12, 1-5, 7-8. Sundays, 9-12 only.—Adv.

ROOMS? YES; BUT ARABS? HORRORS!

They Cook Rice, Lamb and a Lot of Odorous Things.

HEAR JACOBI'S WAIL

Harken now to the wail of Burt Jacobi, in advance of "The Garden of Allah," the spectacle to be seen at the Majestic theater next week. Jacobi came to town yesterday and, among other things, had to seek quarters for a troupe of twenty-four Arabs now en tour with the Allah company.

Jacobi gathered unto himself the newspapers of the city and sought for the classified advertisements. Under the head of "Rooms for Light House-keeping," he gazed with earnest gaze. He noted several addresses and started out. At a house in Barr street he paused and knocked.

"Why, Yes; They Cook Rice and Lamb. I see you have advertised rooms for light housekeeping, madam," he said. "Yes, sir," the madam replied, with enthusiasm, anticipating a contract. "You and your wife?" "No, my dear madam. They're for twenty-four Arabs with 'The Garden of Allah.' 'Who?' 'The Garden of Allah.' They're Arabs, you know. They do their own cooking, and they're dark skinned, aren't they?" "Yes, sir," "Well, of course, I personally don't care, but the neighbors might not like it and—" "They're Mohammedans, madam, and will be known by their dress," "Yes, I know, but I hear Arabs cook much rice and lamb and things like that," Jacobi had to confess they did. On, on he went, from address to address, but at each place he was turned coldly away. Jacobi found, in several places, that the sanitary conditions were worse than are maintained by the Arabs, and it made him bitter. Jacobi Growls Peeved.

"Our Arabs are just as particular about where they eat and sleep as anybody else. They won't eat from a pan that has had pork in it. They eat little other meat than lamb. Their Mohammedan views make them hard to handle in this country, and sometimes I get so discouraged in trying to please both them and the American room renters that I want to quit my job. At Toledo I had no trouble whatever in finding a place for them. In Cleveland it was a tough job and Buffalo was no better. And if Fort Wayne continues to hold out it will have the Anti-Arab record. Everywhere I've gone today to select a room I have been turned away as soon as I said Arab.

"It's funny to hear the ladies back-pedal. As soon as I announce that I'll take the rooms and they ask when to expect me, I say: 'These rooms are for our Arabs,' they throw me out in a hurry. Usually, the excuse is that they are expecting some permanent roomers, and if they don't come I may have them. Which, of course, means, good-bye, Arabs.

"Won't somebody please help a poor theatrical agent who is chasing up a home for a gang of Arabs?"

NEW WHITE HOUSE MYSTERY.

What Has Become of Jackson's Historic Mint Bed There?

Washington Dec. 16—What has become of the historic white house mint bed? No one seems to know, nor who gave the order that led to its disappearance. Andrew Jackson is said to have planted it and no president since that time has touched it, except to pull the richly flavored twigs and leaves from the branches of the plants. During all the changes in the white house building and grounds it has survived. But the place where it grew is covered with fresh earth and there is not a twig or a sprig or apparently a root of it in existence. The bed was within a few feet of the cabinet room and not far from the president's offices.

MAGAZINE AGENT HELD FOR FRAUD

Youth Who Tells Story of Ambition Gets Ladies for His Game.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

With a well-tuned story of young ambition trying to climb his little ladder and of a hand to hand struggle with adversity for the boom of college training, Joseph Timlan has been getting numerous Fort Wayne women to fall for a bargain-day magazine subscription game. Joseph is now in jail awaiting trial in the city court a week hence on a charge of obtaining money by false pretense. Timlan was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Dan Kintz, who had been on the fellow's trail along Fairfield avenue, where he landed a number of subscriptions for a combination magazine offer. At the police headquarters Officer Kintz got an admission from Timlan that he is the man of the same name who had been operating in Ohio cities. Timlan's printed matter represents him to be the agent of the Century Subscription company, Minneapolis, Minn. The "Bulletin of Discharged or Criminal Agents," a publication issued by the Periodical Publishers' Association of America, cards Timlan as a fraud. The game is being extensively worked throughout the country and Fort Wayne has suffered considerable from it. Prosecutions are difficult because in no case is a victim defrauded of much and those who fall for the game generally would rather see the sharper escape than expose themselves as his prey. Papers found in Timlan's traveling bag disclose that he carried on an extensive campaign in Akron, O. He is a clean looking, well set up youth of twenty-two and his appearance gives a fine glow of color to his tale of a struggle for an education. Timlan says that the reason he has so many subscriptions to forward is that he has fallen behind in his work. The plan of the fake subscription game is for the agent to steal the entire proceeds.

Had Plenty of Cash.

Bill Powell, a runaway guest from Grand Rapids, who says his destination is Cincinnati and who was well-wadded with money, was sent to jail for ten days on the continuance of a drunk charge. He was arrested at the Pennsylvania station by Officer Charles Leutz, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana police service. Powell was drunk and causing a disturbance after having made a nuisance of himself in the train. He had about $100 in cash on his person when arrested and he will be investigated.

Trio Will Be Looked Up.

Frank Chapman, John Dole and Joe Zigler composed a trio of steers arrested by Officer Madden. They were continued until Thursday and went to jail in default of $100 bond each. They are late comers to this city and their conduct is under suspicion. The charges against them are sound enough, however, for all of them were well coused when arrested.

Other City Court Cases.

Jeff Myers was in for another farewell to Judge Mungovan, but was given another chance for leave-taking, for the court ordered him to take to the street. Beaus Crawford drew fifteen days and has a chance for one more engagement with the Mungovan regime in the city court. He was drunk, but not drunker than usual.

John McManus got eleven days for intoxication, and Roy Desmond, who sowed a line of foul talk on the street and begged and whined for release this morning, drew a similar prize. James Brinfield, Henry Kruse and Jim Kelly, drunks, were turned loose.

MUST FACE TOBACCO SMOKE.

Women's Efforts to Bar It From Polls in Chicago Fails.

Chicago, Dec. 16—If Chicago women go to the polls next spring they will be compelled to mark their ballots in a haze of tobacco smoke. A request that smoking be prohibited at the polls was made to the election commissioners yesterday by the Political Society league. The commissioners informed the women that there is no law by which the smoking can be prohibited.

Politicians announced that they will invoke court action in an attempt to prevent women from acting as judges and clerks of elections. Their opposition will be based on the Illinois statute which limits the working day of women to ten hours. They say that election officials are often required to work from eighteen to twenty hours while ballots are being marked and counted.

GREAT TUNNEL NOW OPEN.

Daylight Pierces Mount Royal at Montreal for First Time.

Montreal, Dec. 16—Daylight pierced Mount Royal for the first time today. Two gangs of laborers tunneling 600 feet under ground met in the heart of the mountain. The new tunnel is three and one-third miles long and was built for the Canadian Northern Railway company. Within a year, it is expected, trains will enter the city through the tunnel instead of making a detour around the mountain.
